WHAT A PARADE!

The Balboa Island Parade was a huge success, arguably the best in 27 years. The BIIA Parade Committee met and planned the Parade all year long, working out detailed co-ordination of volunteers, participants, and vendors.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Have you ever wondered what your membership dues support and why the BIIA needs 21 board members? The answer is "Simple"; it is the Balboa Island Improvement Association's responsibility to preserve the Island culture, maintain and improve the infrastructure and develop a sense of community. Your association continues to have an excellent working relationship with the City of Newport Beach that is essential to accomplish our mission. If you don't already know, we are a non-profit organization licensed by the State of California, as are the Balboa Island Merchants Association and the Little Balboa Island Property Owner's Association. Your Association was founded in 1918 and has been licensed by the State of California for over 70 years. Proudly displayed in our Balboa Island Museum is a plaque honoring the past presidents of the Association since the early 1950's.

In just a little more than 10 years, the BIIA has accomplished the items listed to the right, preserving our culture and protecting our island.

No doubt about it ~ we can thank the Balboa Island Improvement Association Board of Directors, volunteers, past presidents such as Jeff Herdman, Lee Pearl, Jack Callahan and to you, our membership that support our activities each year!

WRAP-UP

Jack Callahan

Gail Vasterling

On behalf of the Balboa Island Improvement Association and the Parade committee, I want to thank you for supporting the 2022 Balboa Island Parade "Boots, Chaps & Cowboy Hats". It was a wonderful Parade, probably our best yet, and a great family event. Also, this parade was 100% funded by sponsorships, the community and businesses really stepped up and supported this twenty seven year 3-block treasure.

See you Sunday, June 4th, 2023! — Jack

Meet Your Merchants

by Cynthia Shafer, President - Balboa Island Merchants Association

Get to know the Balboa Island Merchants Association

Georgie Fenton, Diane Pratt, Lisa Skelly, Cynthia Shafer, Gerda Egul, Shawn Mastos enjoying the hospitality of the Royal Hen

The Balboa Island Merchants Association Inc. was filed as a California 501 (c) 6 corporation in 2013. Our mission then and now is, to promote business, solve common problems, and support goodwill among the merchants, owners, visitors, and residents, while trying to attract quality businesses and customers to Balboa Island. I am the current President of the association and work with a great Board of Directors including Sherry Drewery of Wilma's, Georgie Fenton of Coldwell Banker, Will and Courtney Alovís of Sugar n Spice and Lisa Skelly of Huse Skelly Gallery.

Our goal is to provide support and community to our fellow merchants on Marine and Agate to help them succeed and thrive on our fabulous island. We recently held our first "Merchants Mix and Mingle" at The Royal Hen on June 16 and it was amazing to see the great turnout of veterans and new merchants getting to know each other and share ideas. BIIA President Terry Janssen and his wife Patti and Balboa Island Museum representatives were all on hand to help promote good community relations. Our organizations all work closely together on island events, celebrations, issues and problem solving as we all share the common love of our island and desire to make it a beautiful place to live and work.

We are lucky to welcome some great recent additions to the island. Sheryl Scarso at J & S Makes Scents at 213½ Marine offers cigars, hand poured soy candles and much more at this beautiful new spot. Blue Atlas Marketplace settled into 321 Marine and owners Susan Bush and Liz Canady have personalized gifts, coastal home goods and offer concierge gifting services for personal and business events. The Thomas family are the new owners of Balboa Island Baking Company at 220 Marine and daughter Maddie will be baking fresh favorites daily in their newly painted spot. Maddie was kind enough to bring her chocolate chip cookies to our event and they were rapidly gobbled up and loved by all.

The BIMA helps with the holiday flags and decorations on the light poles lining Marine, print advertising for seasonal events, social media presence and promotion @Visitbalboaisland, and prints the Balboa Island Restaurant Guide We act as a liaison to Newport Beach Hotels, work with representatives of the City of Newport Beach and assist with many island special events such as the Taste of Balboa, Christmas Walk Celebrations and help provide carolers on Marine and Santa and Mrs Claus for the Tree lighting with the help of Agate's Once Upon an Island. We also sponsor Holiday Shopping Events and scavenger hunts on Halloween, Easter and Christmas to create excitement and patronage of our stores and restaurants. We have great relations with the Balboa Village Merchants Assoc on the Peninsula and collaborate with them as well.

We are constructing a designated Island Merchant website to provide continuous current information and are in discussions to provide a trolley or some sort of transport on the island to help alleviate some of the parking and congestion issues. We are working with the city on the Marine Ave bench refurbishment and special grates for our tree wells that will help to beautify our street and protect our historic trees to be completed over the next year.

BIYC 2022 Commodore

Traditions always have a beginning.

Allan Beek speaks at the BIYC Centennial Celebration

In June, the BIYC had its 100th Anniversary celebration with over 300 alumni including 40 Staff Commodores and 30 Staff Secretary Treasurers. There was reminiscing, fun stories, great food, entertaining games, and a good time was had by all. The day started with alumni registering and talking to each other. The ceremony started with the history of BIYC then all of the past Staff Commodores and Staff Secretary Treasurers were announced one by one. After, there were fun memories shared by 1942 Senior Staff Commodore Allan Beek. The Mayor of Newport Beach, Mayor Kevin Muldoon, signed the Proclamation of Centennial Celebration for BIYC that was shared during the ceremony. After the ceremony, the celebration moved from Mr. Beek's dock to the end of Turquoise. Where everyone ate, played games about the history of BIYC, and rekindled the friendships they've made at the BIYC beach over the years.

It's hard to keep the tradition alive in our changing world. That's what's so amazing about BIYC, it's tradition has carried on for 100 years. It has survived The Great Depression, World War II, the Vietnam and Korean Wars, 9-11, and a worldwide pandemic. In those years the world has seen the invention of color television, space travel, the internet, and TikTok.

There are a lot of things that have happened in 100 years, and BIYC continues. The flags get raised on Mr. Beek's dock, kids come and compete, we have our Thursday meetings, potluck dinners, our Port Captains, the Munroe Standings, and a camaraderie between the younger and older generations that is hard to find in today's world. The celebration was so special because everyone came to celebrate the extraordinary wonder of BIYC.

“Team Effort Cooks up “Best Memorial Day BBQ Ever”

By PETE WEITZNER, Producer, “Golden Age of Newport Harbor”

MC Dennis Bress shows off the Honor Wall

Nearly 400 Attend Return of Annual Event

An Island favorite returned in grand style as the Memorial Day BBQ at Balboa Island Park drew a record crowd of almost 400 people. “Greatest BBQ we’ve ever had. People just kept coming,” Bill Stewart said. Stewart started the tradition and chaired this year’s event.

The event is a dual effort – underwritten by the Balboa Island Museum Newport Beach, which also provides many volunteers, runs the raffle, etc. All the BBQ essentials, from setup to breakdown, are courtesy of the BALBOA ISLAND IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATION.

Museum Board Member Dennis Bress served as master of ceremonies, his wife Summer Bress, sang the “Star-Spangled Banner.” “Much credit to Dennis and his son Nigel, Stewart said, they ran around buying all the food. Dennis even provided the Spam.”

The food buying included an extra trip during the BBQ. “It was as if people started smelling good food, got on the Ferry and came on over,” Museum Executive Director Tiffany Pepys Hoey said.

Many in the crowd were dressed in patriotic red, white and blue. Beyond the hot dogs and hamburgers, they came to honor those who have died in our nation’s wars.

Deacon Patric Bartolic of Saint John Vianney Chapel read off the names of the 17 veterans lost since the last community Memorial Day gathering. They included:

- Eleanor Taylor, a WW II veteran and Navy nurse who was in the first group of WAVES.
- Sgt. Albert “Ally” Larsen, who escaped a well-documented “Nazi-death march.”
- Pete Bonin Sr., 104, a WW Navy radioman and Bronze Star recipient.
- Air Force Veteran Terry Donahue, who went on to be head football coach of the UCLA Bruins for 20 years.

Stewart’s identified 300 Island veterans, and hopes to add more photos to his wall

A huge turnout forced Nigel Bress to make an emergency food run

Stewart set up a wall of photos of Island Veterans in front of the Carroll Beek Center, which greeted visitors as they arrived.

The BBQ was free to veterans and their spouses, and all donations support the Museum’s Veteran’s Project. Stewart is the director of the Veterans Project, which has identified some 300+ veterans on the island, in its efforts to document and recognize all of them. About 180 Island veterans have shared their history at: balboaislandmuseum.org/veterans/

And Stewart’s not done. “I still need a half dozen volunteers to make phone calls, knock on doors, find our new veterans, those who passed,” Stewart said. Criteria are to have lived on the island or have some connection – the nation’s most famous and decorated veteran, Audie Murphy, docked his boat here and spent time on Balboa Island.

M E M B E R S H I P

by Larry Kallestad

Wow! Summertime on the Island hit like a tsunami. First, the BIIA sponsored the Twenty-Seventh Annual Balboa Island Parade on June 5, attracting over 4,000 people. That was followed by the onslaught of the Junior Lifeguards using the Island as a shortcut to the morning and afternoon sessions on the peninsula. Also the advent of electric bicycles has enabled even more people to access the island without bringing cars.

For the first time, I'm hearing our Island neighbors saying much earlier than usual, "I can't wait to get our Island back." But that is just the result of us living and or working in a "Destination Location." We just have to realize it will take another five minutes to make it over the bridge.

Balboa Island is an extremely vital place. I am proud to say it has a great deal to do with the work of the Balboa Island Improvement Association. The goal of the BIIA Board of Directors is to make the Island the best it can be, while including fun annual events and activities. What is really unique is that the movers and shakers of the Association are volunteers, no one gets paid. The BIIA has been improving the island since 1919, and will continue on with your support! There are well over 1,300 properties on the three islands that make up what is collectively identified as Balboa Island.

The BIIA has 670 families on its roster to date, that's just over half of the households. On page 3 of this Bridge is a list of BIIA contributions in the past 10 years, assembled by Terry Janssen and Lee Pearl. You can become a member by going on our website below, or using the enclosed envelope. Please join us and get involved in your island, you won't regret it. Larry
